AGENT PORTAL

Rev.io delivers everything you need to build agent relationships, win customers, and grow revenue faster so you can get back to focusing on your business.

Rev.io Agent Portal complements our quote-to-cash billing platform as a robust tool for maximizing your agent channels and improving end customer experience.

WITH REV.IO AGENT PORTAL, YOU CAN:

WIN MORE BUSINESS - Agents can create quotes and proposals directly through the Portal to become orders in Rev.io. Agents' ability to create quotes and orders can be controlled by user permissions and approval processes.

IMPROVE VISIBILITY - Agents can see their customer account details including bill and payment history, trouble tickets, new orders, and order status.

STREAMLINE COMMUNICATION- One platform for sending messages, sharing documentation, and providing training resources to agents.

GROW AGENT PRODUCTIVITY - Knowledge is power. With 24/7 access to account details, and customer and commission reports, your agents are better equipped to serve your end customers.

INCREASE CUSTOMER RETENTION - Provide better service to your end users with access to customer accounts and commission reports.

SAVE TIME & REDUCE SUPPORT - Our automated commissioning systems save you time while maximizing your relationship with agents and improving user experience.
